

Dear Colleague,

Time in politics moves very quickly. And it is time again to seek the approval of local members to stand as their candidate.

The selection procedure ensures that members are involved as much as possible in the process to select candidates to stand for election and that, where possible, contests are held to find the very best representation the Party can put forward.

The procedures were updated in January 2019, although these were minor changes, do take time to read and understand them. You will be provided a copy with this application form.

This form is the first step towards that process starting and should be completed and returned as instructed.
